Being The Church!

One thing that sets the Southern Baptist Convention apart is its unique and strong system of churches cooperating with one another. This allows us to accomplish what could not be accomplished by any single church on its own.

Of Course, we refer to this as The Cooperative Program. Resources are accumulated from thousands of churches in order to fund Missions and Evangelism around the world. It assists the training and education of those called to the gospel ministry through our six seminaries across the country. It stands for Christian Ethics and gives it a voice. It helps train and facilitate ordinary people to learning more about the Word of God through Sunday School material and bible studies and Christian Camps.

Though certainly not perfect, the SBC is the best way I know for the church of Jesus Christ to learn, go, grow and show the world the mystery of surrender to Jesus Christ. At least, that's what I think it should be.

When I first came on board as the Associational Mission Strategist, I quickly tried to find a way to get churches to pull together in their own communities to make a difference there. I divided the association into five sections, not to divide us as an association but to strengthen our presence and affect where we live.

Together we can make a difference in our communities and around the world. One way to do that is to be involved in the upcoming ServeNC effort. Churches all across North Carolina are being asked to serve their communities in a tangible way sometime during the week of August 3rd-10th. Each church will decide what kind of project they could do in their own communities.

I sent a letter to every pastor/church recently to explain this effort fully. I shared that there is some ministry money available. If a church would like to do something but could use a little financial assistance in order to do so, we have some resources for that.

Imagine 60 churches in our ten counties, actively serving their communities in some way on the same day in the name of Jesus Christ!

Please encourage your pastor to register your church today by going to <https://ncbaptist/servenc/> and registering right away.

There are many ways that you can serve your neighborhoods that would impact the hearts and lives of many when they see you serving in love to God's Glory!

God bless each of you!

James

Blackwell Memorial Baptist Church is seeking to employ a Bi-Vocational Pastor. We are located on N. Road St., Elizabeth City, NC. The Part-time position falls within Blackwell's budget and hopefully and graciously can be expanded to grow back to its past glory days to include Youth Ministries and other programs to round out offering a holistic environment for all ages to worship and grow in Jesus Christ.

Please contact John Marshall at jcmarshall1024@gmail.com

Rehoboth Baptist Church in Maple, NC is seeking a part time pianist. This is a paid position. Please contact Pastor Andrew Williams for more information at 910-651-7671

Matching P & C – Ortiz

A few years ago I began to give more thought to the subject of how churches seek new pastors. Based upon what I have observed over the past 40 years, too often churches do this process poorly. It doesn't take long to see that the pastor and church are poorly matched, which obviously leads to all kinds of problems and heartache. In essence, the relationship of pastor to church is much like a marriage relationship. To make the relationship last, there must be honesty, integrity, and communication – good communication.

Therefore, I have written a guideline document for churches, to help them with the pastor selection process. It consists of nine issues, filled with appropriate questions – nine issues for the pastor and nine issues for the church. I am convinced when this process is followed, the likelihood of securing the “right” pastor will increase exponentially. Furthermore, I am available to help you. Just call me @ 252-312-9910. I will provide this service FREE. It will take a couple of hours. This process is simply called Matching Pastor and Church. I cannot and will not tell you who to hire, that must be the church's decision. But I can certainly give you good, solid counsel.

A few weeks ago I had a good conversation with Paul Ortiz, pastor of Island Church in Atlantic Beach. We discussed the SEND process, which helps church planters in NC and around the USA. Here is what I learned. Southern Baptists have a national church planting process simply called the SEND network. The national network works with state networks, and in our state it is called SEND NC. Paul Ortiz is primary trainer and mentor for our eastern NC church planters. He has worked with and helped both Andrew Browder, River City Church, and K.J. Ellington, One Church. Andrew is working in Elizabeth City and the campus of ECSU. K.J. is planting a church in Avon on Hatteras Island, currently meeting at the Fire Department in Avon. Island Church is the parent church for One Church, and as such, Paul serves as K.J.'s pastor (yes, pastors need pastors). One of my great goals is for our Association to be a training site for these Eastern church planters. I have recommended to a number of folks that Camp Cale will be an ideal site. Finally, if you need a supply preacher for a given Sunday, consider contacting either Andrew or K.J. Give them some pulpit time to share their story. Here are the contact phone numbers:

K.J. Ellington (wife Sharon) - 252-996-1434

Respectfully Yours, Wayne Proctor – Church Planting & Revitalization

Our VIP Party was a huge success. We did it differently and it worked out great. There are so many I need to thank, Ruth Bass for coordinating it all, Becky McLawhorn for doing crafts, many from Edenton Baptist who lead music and motion, their pastor for a nice devotion and the men cooking and providing hotdogs, buns and the best baked beans. The puppet team from Moyock Baptist under the direction of Meta Lowe is always a hit. I also want to thank the Cale staff for all the work they do to get ready for us and especially Destiny Jennings for helping that day. I also thank all the volunteers who helped that day. We could not do this without the support of all of you, thank you for the money donations.

May 28 we will be prayer walking Cale praying especially for the upcoming summer camp season. Please come out at 6:30 P.M. to meet with the staff and then spread out to pray for each area. This is for men and women not just WMU members. Let me know if you would be willing to take staff name to pray for all summer, send them encouraging notes and small gifts.

Once again I thank you for all you do for WMU, your community and especially our precious Lord and Savior.

Blessings,
Nancy Scaff
